1. You have the right to cancel this agreement for educational services including any equipment and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Business day means a day on which you were scheduled to attend a class. Cancellation occurs when you give a written notice of cancellation. You can do this by mail, in person, by FAX or telegram. The notice of cancellation, if mailed is effective when deposited in the mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid. This notice need not take any particular form; it needs only to state you wish to cancel the agreement. You will be given two notices of cancellation forms on the first day of class. If you cancel this agreement, the institution will refund any money that you paid within 30 days after your notice is received.
Cancellation of this agreement can occur through: Date _____
2. Students are advised that notification of withdrawal or cancellation must be made in writing.
3. The Cancellation Notice must be addressed to:
Administration Office, California Central University
23814 S. Vermont Ave., Harbor City, California 90710
4. If the institution has given you any equipment, you shall return the equipment within 30 days of the date you signed a cancellation notice. If you do not return this equipment within this 30-day period, the institution may keep an amount out of what you paid that equals the cost of the equipment. The total amount charged for each item of equipment shall be separately stated. The amount charged for each item of equipment shall not exceed the equipment's fair market value. The institution shall have the burden of proof to establish the equipment's fair market value. The institution is required to refund any amount over that as provided above, and you may keep the equipment.
5. You have the right to withdraw from a program of instruction at any time. If you withdraw from the course of instruction after the cancellation period as in paragraph 1, the institution will remit a refund less non-refundable registration fee and non-refundable STRF fee within 30 days following your withdrawal. You are obligated to pay only for educational services rendered and unreturned equipment. The refunds shall be the amount you paid for instruction multiplied by fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of instruction, which has not been received but for which you have paid, the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction from which you have paid. If you obtain equipment, as specified on the first page of this agreement, and return it in good condition within 30 days following the date of your withdrawal, the institution shall refund the amount paid by you for the equipment. You are liable for the amount, if any, by which the pro rata or documented cost of the equipment exceeds the refund amount. If the amount you have paid is more than the amount that you owe, then a refund will be made within 30 days of your withdrawal. If the amount that you owe is more than the amount you paid, then you will have to make arrangements to pay it.

You have the right to cancel this agreement for educational services including any equipment and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Business day means a day on which you were scheduled to attend a class. Cancellation occurs when you give a written notice of cancellation. You can do this by mail, in person, by FAX or telegram. The notice of cancellation, if mailed is effective when deposited in the mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid. This notice need not take any particular form; it needs only to state you wish to cancel the agreement. You will be given two notices of cancellation forms on the first day of class. If you cancel this agreement, the institution will refund any money that you paid within 30 days after your notice is received.

Cancellation of this agreement can occur through: Date _____

2. Students are advised that notification of withdrawal or cancellation must be made in writing.
3. The Cancellation Notice must be addressed to:

23814 S. Vermont Ave., Harbor City, California 90710
4. If the institution has given you any equipment, you shall return the equipment within 30 days of the date you signed a cancellation notice. If you do not return this equipment within this 30-day period, the institution may keep an amount out of what you paid that equals the cost of the equipment. The total amount charged for each item of equipment shall be separately stated. The amount charged for each item of equipment shall not exceed the equipment's fair market value. The institution shall have the burden of proof to establish the equipment's fair market value. The institution is required to refund any amount over that as provided above, and you may keep the equipment.

The refunds shall be the amount you paid for instruction multiplied by fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of instruction, which has not been received but for which you have paid, the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction from which you have paid. If you obtain equipment, as specified on the first page of this agreement, and return it in good condition within 30 days following the date of your withdrawal, the institution shall refund the amount paid by you for the equipment. You are liable for the amount, if any, by which the pro rata or documented cost of the equipment exceeds the refund amount. If the amount you have paid is more than the amount that you owe, then a refund will be made within 30 days of your withdrawal. If the amount that you owe is more than the amount you paid, then you will have to make arrangements to pay it.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

1. You have the right to cancel this agreement for educational services including any equipment and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Business day means a day on which you were scheduled to attend a class. Cancellation occurs when you give a written notice of cancellation. You can do this by mail, in person, by FAX or telegram. The notice of cancellation, if mailed is effective when deposited in the mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid. This notice need not take any particular form; it needs only to state you wish to cancel the agreement. You will be given two notices of cancellation forms on the first day of class. If you cancel this agreement, the institution will refund any money that you paid within 30 days after your notice is received.
Cancellation of this agreement can occur through: Date _____
2. Students are advised that notification of withdrawal or cancellation must be made in writing.
3. The Cancellation Notice must be addressed to:
Administration Office, California Central University
23814 S. Vermont Ave., Harbor City, California 90710
4. If the institution has given you any equipment, you shall return the equipment within 30 days of the date you signed a cancellation notice. If you do not return this equipment within this 30-day period, the institution may keep an amount out of what you paid that equals the cost of the equipment. The total amount charged for each item of equipment shall be separately stated. The amount charged for each item of equipment shall not exceed the equipment's fair market value. The institution shall have the burden of proof to establish the equipment's fair market value. The institution is required to refund any amount over that as provided above, and you may keep the equipment.
5. You have the right to withdraw from a program of instruction at any time. If you withdraw from the course of instruction after the cancellation period as in paragraph 1, the institution will remit a refund less non-refundable registration fee and non-refundable STRF fee within 30 days following your withdrawal. You are obligated to pay only for educational services rendered and unreturned equipment. The refunds shall be the amount you paid for instruction multiplied by fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of instruction, which has not been received but for which you have paid, the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction from which you have paid. If you obtain equipment, as specified on the first page of this agreement, and return it in good condition within 30 days following the date of your withdrawal, the institution shall refund the amount paid by you for the equipment. If you fail to return the equipment in good condition within 30 days, the institution may retain the lesser amount of a pro rata portion as described below (up to 60% of course completion) or documented cost of the listed equipment. You are liable for the amount, if any, by which the pro rata or documented cost of the equipment exceeds the refund amount. If the amount you have paid is more than the amount that you owe, then a refund will be made within 30 days of your withdrawal. If the amount that you owe is more than the amount you paid, then you will have to make arrangements to pay it.
6. If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. CEC §94911(f)

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

1. You have the right to cancel this agreement for educational services including any equipment and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. Business day means a day on which you were scheduled to attend a class. Cancellation occurs when you give a written notice of cancellation. You can do this by mail, in person, by FAX or telegram. The notice of cancellation, if mailed is effective when deposited in the mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid. This notice need not take any particular form; it needs only to state you wish to cancel the agreement. You will be given two notices of cancellation forms on the first day of class. If you cancel this agreement, the institution will refund any money that you paid within 30 days after your notice is received.
Cancellation of this agreement can occur through: Date _____
2. Students are advised that notification of withdrawal or cancellation must be made in writing.
3. The Cancellation Notice must be addressed to:
Administration Office, California Central University
23814 S. Vermont Ave., Harbor City, California 90710
4. If the institution has given you any equipment, you shall return the equipment within 30 days of the date you signed a cancellation notice. If you do not return this equipment within this 30-day period, the institution may keep an amount out of what you paid that equals the cost of the equipment. The total amount charged for each item of equipment shall be separately stated. The amount charged for each item of equipment shall not exceed the equipment's fair market value. The institution shall have the burden of proof to establish the equipment's fair market value. The institution is required to refund any amount over that as provided above, and you may keep the equipment.
5. You have the right to withdraw from a program of instruction at any time. If you withdraw from the course of instruction after the cancellation period as in paragraph 1, the institution will remit a refund less non-refundable registration fee and non-refundable STRF fee within 30 days following your withdrawal. You are obligated to pay only for educational services rendered and unreturned equipment. The refunds shall be the amount you paid for instruction multiplied by fraction, the numerator of which is the number of hours of instruction, which has not been received but for which you have paid, the denominator of which is the total number of hours of instruction from which you have paid. If you obtain equipment, as specified on the first page of this agreement, and return it in good condition within 30 days following the date of your withdrawal, the institution shall refund the amount paid by you for the equipment. If you fail to return the equipment in good condition within 30 days, the institution may retain the lesser amount of a pro rata portion as described below (up to 60% of course completion) or documented cost of the listed equipment. You are liable for the amount, if any, by which the pro rata or documented cost of the equipment exceeds the refund amount. If the amount you have paid is more than the amount that you owe, then a refund will be made within 30 days of your withdrawal. If the amount that you owe is more than the amount you paid, then you will have to make arrangements to pay it.
6. If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund. CEC §94911(f)
7. If the student is eligible for a loan guaranteed by the federal or state government and the student defaults on the loan, both of the following may occur: CEC §94911(g)(1)(2)

The notice of cancellation, if mailed is effective when deposited in the mail, properly addressed with postage prepaid. This notice need not take any particular form; it needs only to state you wish to cancel the agreement. You will be given two notices of cancellation forms on the first day of class. If you cancel this agreement, the institution will refund any money that you paid within 30 days after your notice is received.

4. If the institution has given you any equipment, you shall return the equipment within 30 days of the date you signed a cancellation notice. If you do not return this equipment within this 30-day period, the institution may keep an amount out of what you paid that equals the cost of the equipment. The total amount charged for each item of equipment shall be separately stated. The amount charged for each item of equipment shall not exceed the equipment's fair market value. The institution shall have the burden of proof to establish the equipment's fair market value. The institution is required to refund any amount over that as provided above, and you may keep the equipment.

If the amount that you owe is more than the amount you paid, then you will have to make arrangements to pay it.
